Photocopying Guide

Before you sign the Photocopy Request and Declaration form, you need to decide whether you intend to use a photocopy for commercial or non-commercial purpose.

Commercial Copying

- Research relevant to R&D in a commercial company (e.g. product development)
- Research relevant to R&D where result will be passed to a commercial company for commercial use
- Market research or competitor intelligence in all organisations
- Searching for legislation and regulation for a commercial company
- Work done by an information broker for clients

Non-Commercial Copying

- R&D in education establishments which is not related to any commercial venture
- Employees' own private research or study, unrelated to any commercial venture
- Research on a genuinely pro-bono basis
- Any individual's private research or study, unrelated to any commercial venture

Declaration (please read the Photocopying Guide above)

I declare that

- (a) I have not previously been supplied with a copy of the same material by you or any other librarian;
- (b) I will not use the copy except for research for a non-commercial purpose or private study and will not supply a copy of it to any other person; and
- (c) to the best of my knowledge no other person which whom I work or study has made or intends to make, at or about the same time as this request, a request for substantially the same material for substantially the same purpose.

I understand that if the declaration is false in a material particular, the copy supplied to me by you will be an infringing copy, and that I shall be liable for infringement of copyright as if I had made the copy myself.
